

Carolyn Sandra Hirt

August 31, 1938 - August 10, 2020

Carolyn S. Hirt, 81, passed away on August 10, 2020, in her home in Mooresville, NC.

She was born to the late John and Loretta (Curcio) Town on August 31, 1938 in New York, NY and lived most of her life on Long Island. Carolyn was a retired administrator. She worked for the American Physical Society in NYC as a Meetings Manager, arranging meeting venues for scientific personnel on both the National and International level. In 1982, Carolyn was hired by the newly built NY Convention Center and became National Sales Manager, this time arranging events in a venue. Shortly after, she met and married her husband of 31 years, the late Carl S. Hirt. While living in Huntington, they were involved in the US Coast Guard Auxiliary, teaching water and boat safety, patrolling harbors and the LI Sound and participating in OpSail. Carolyn attained the rank of Flotilla Commander. Heading south several years later, Carolyn soon became involved in the Order of the Amaranth, and was installed as Grand Royal Matron of Carolina Court #10 in 2018. Carolyn enjoyed her family, travel, gardening, animals, music, dancing and the beach. A visit to LI would always include a trip to the ocean.

Carolyn is survived by her daughter, Carolyn Calderaro (Ralph); stepson Brian Hirt; stepdaughter Laura Kearns (Michael); and grandchildren Alexandra Moshier, Zachay Moshier, and Valerie Moshier.

“ We are so sorry to hear of the loss of Carolyn. Carolyn was an active member of the Mooresville Lake Norman Newcomers group, and participated in many of their activities. She played Night Bunco with me and other ladies, and we always had a lot of fun. She also organized the Out To Lunch Bunch, which was very enjoyable. Besides those two groups, she participated in other activities as well. Carolyn will be sadly missed by me and many other close friends. Rest In Peace, Carolyn. Peggy Spitzer

“ One day while going over to Carolyn's to help, she was in extremely bad shape, Thought I would spend the night but her Granddaughter Alex came to help. The next day I tried calling to no avail and low and behold she was determined to go the Ceremony for Amaranth for 3 days. Still trying to figure out how she managed in all her pain. She told me later on that the members of Amaranth helped and were the answer and so glad she had gone. There were beautiful pictures of her at the Ceremony on Facebook. Only because of her sheer determination Carolyn somehow managed this past year. RIP wonderful Lady - our prayers and thoughts go with you and may you rest in eternal peace.
