

Dr. Conrad Frederick Nagel, III

July 31, 1931 - April 17, 2020

Conrad Frederick Nagel, III, 88, passed away peacefully on April 17, 2020 at Levine & Dickson Hospice House, in Charlotte. He was born in Pittsburgh on July 31, 1931 to Conrad Frederick Nagel, II, and Mona Krytzer. Preceded in death by his wife, Marilyn (Mimi) Nagel and his two sisters. Father of Conrad (Rick) Nagel, IV (Carol), Holly Alleva (Fil), Scott Nagel (Susan), Courtney Nagel (Holly), and Crystal Nagel-Smith; grandfather to 13 grandchildren and great grandfather to 2 great grandchildren. Conrad went to college at Penn State and later obtained his DDS at The University of Pittsburgh Dental School. Following graduation, Conrad went into the Army as an officer and was stationed in Oklahoma before moving back to Pittsburgh and starting his dental practice that lasted well into his early 70s. In addition to his successful dental practice, Conrad was a professor at the University of Pittsburgh Dental School, teaching advanced restorative dentistry to select dental students. Conrad enjoyed spending time with his family on the rivers of Pittsburgh boating and water skiing, playing golf, fishing in Canada and Florida, hunting, and spending time in Florida on Sanibel Island with Family and friends. Conrad was an avid angler and enjoyed spending time out on the sandbars of Sanibel Island saltwater fishing. One of Conrad's greatest joys was watching his children grow and watching them participate in athletic and other events. No matter where he was, Conrad was up for a conversation with anybody. Conrad's zest for life and unique character will be missed by all who knew him. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the family of Mr. Nagel. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

Cemetery

Cavin-Cook FH & Crematory

494 E. Plaza Drive

Mooresville, NC, 28115