

Dale Claude Pond

April 7, 1946 - May 12, 2020

Dale Pond, of Mooresville, NC, died on May 12, 2020 after a valiant fight with Primary Progressive Aphasia and Dementia. Dale was born in Spokane, Washington on April 7, 1946, living in Seattle and San Diego before moving to Prairie Village, Kansas. He received his Bachelor of Business Administration from Washburn University and is also a graduate of Stanford University's Graduate School of Business Executive Program. He began his career as Regional Director of Sales for an NBC affiliate in Topeka and thereafter formed an advertising agency, Peabody/Pond, also in Topeka. He served in the United States Marine Corps Reserves.

Dale excelled in the field of merchandising, marketing and strategy development. He conceptualized the McDonald's Happy Meal in use since 1977 during his tenure with Bernstein/Rein Advertising where he managed the agency's McDonald's 9 regional offices. Later he joined Payless Cashways in Kansas City rising to the position of Senior Vice President, Chief Merchandising & Marketing.

In 1989 he was recruited by Montgomery Ward as Chief Marketing Officer and member of the company's Executive Committee at their Chicago headquarters.

He served 12 years with Lowe's Cos. Inc., retiring in 2005 as Senior Executive Vice President, Merchandising and Marketing. During his tenure with Lowe's, Dale served on the Executive Management Committee, Real Estate Committee, Strategic Planning Committee and the Board of Directors for Lowe's Educational & Charitable Foundation. He is given credit for the enormous success of HGTV through his initial support through Lowe's as their anchor sponsor. He also was responsible for Lowe's entrance into racing, something they had been reluctant to do previously.

After his retirement, Dale remained an active member on the public company board as lead director of Family Dollar Stores; Bassett Furniture Industries, Inc. chairman of Organization, Compensation & Nomination; Scripps Networks; and consulted with Hendrick Motorsports and Hendrick Automotive Group. Through the years he served on the following boards: Home Safety Council, Harvard MIT Joint Center for Housing, Kansas City Arts Council, State Ballet of Missouri, Texas A&M Joint Center for Retailing Studies, Colorado Special Olympics, The National Center for Small Communities and the Home Improvement Research Institute.

Exactly two years previous to the date of his death, on May 12, 2018 Dale received an honorary Doctorate of Business Administration from Washburn University.

After his retirement from Lowe's, he and Susan, his wife of 53 years, traveled the world. Africa was his favorite place and they returned many times there. He was passionate about train travel and they took wonderful train journeys on a number of different continents. Additional travel included numerous trips with their daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. The Turks & Caicos Islands provided much needed relaxation through the years. His hobbies included painting, most recently with his granddaughter, drumming, model trains, art collecting, sports cars and shopping. He loved to shop as evidenced by his enormous wardrobe of colorful shirts and matching socks for which he became known.

Another of his passions were his Great Pyrenees dogs. Most recently his two rescue Great Pyrenees, Elsa and Olaf.

Besides his wife, Susan, Dale leaves behind his daughter, Ashli Guglielmo, her husband, Don, three grandchildren, Christopher, Nicolas & Angelina and one brother, Larry Pond, his wife Linda and two nephews, Brian & Steven Pond.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dale from his Payless Cashways days, and before that when he was at B-R as our Client Liaison. When my daughter was born in 1984, Dale was the first visitor I had besides family at St. Luke's Hospital in KC. It was the morning after I had her and he came in my room, much to my surprise. Back then they had stricter visiting hours and we joked that he looked like a doctor so no one questioned him. It meant a lot to me and he sincerely wished us much happiness and said that he had recently lost a parent, so a new life was especially meaningful to him.

I am so very sorry for your loss and I know how much family meant to Dale. Hugs and prayers coming your way.

“ Dear Susan and Ashli,

I had the pleasure of serving your husband/dad as a consultant when he was at Lowe's. Our paths crossed again when he served on the board of Family Dollar, where I was then an executive. I always enjoyed sitting with him at board meetings/dinners and hearing of your latest family travels — from African safaris to seeing the U.S. in the RV. As an only child myself, I felt a special connection with your family and with his desire to make special memories while you had the time together. I hope you have a reservoir of many such memories to cherish in the days ahead.

Best,
Dorlisa K. Flur

“ Dear Susan, Ashli, and family,
I had the great pleasure to work with Dale through Hendrick Motorsports and Hendrick Automotive Group. I learned so much from him, and I'm sure you know he made such an incredibly positive impact on all who he interacted with in business. Over the years, I heard many people say he was the finest marketer they'd ever met. And that is most certainly true. His intelligence was only surpassed by his kindness. Dale had a gentle spirit combined with a keen drive to be the best, and to lift his team and those around him. Knowing Dale was a blessing for me. And I share my deepest condolences for your family.
With sincere respect,
Marshall

“ Dear Susan,
We have been friends since double dating back in 1965, so we have many delightful memories, including standing up for each other in our weddings and later attending our daughters' weddings. This goodbye has been particularly painful for Rob, who has considered Dale to be his best friend since they were neighbors at the age of ten.
Rob and I have thoroughly enjoyed the travels and weekends in each other's homes, in part because of Dale's ease of conversation and his good humor. We could always depend on having fun...and good food and wine.
Susan, you feel like one of the family, and we want to continue meeting up to share good memories and enjoy new experiences. It won't be the same, but it will still be good.
Take care of yourself. We are so glad Ashli is nearby. I know you will help each other.
Love, Mary Stoy

“ Dale Pond was revered as the resident marketing genius everywhere he went. He vision for how to transform a brand with the 'all in" commitment to make it stick was unrivaled. For those of us who were lucky to know him, he was star we all looked up to. Even though it is such a sad day, our family sends so much gratitude for the positive difference he made in so many lives. He was truly an amazing man.

“ One day we were sitting and talking and the subject of Dales younger days came up about his time he spent in the Army, which I never knew about. It was so interesting and river thing, I couldn't get enough of it. Just like the rest of his life, not ever a dull moment. I wish he would have written an Auto Biography of his life so that every one can find out what an interesting and kind man Dale was..

“ Dear Susan,
My heart is breaking as I read of the loss of my dear friend and “brother”. Julia and I send our deepest sympathies.
Dale was a true gentleman, visionary and business genius who loved you and his family above all else. His early belief in and support of HGTV were critical in its success and he taught me so much about marketing, branding and life. Condolences and memories from Scripps employees and directors are pouring in and I'll forward them all to you for later viewing. I will always consider Dale's friendship to be a blessing from God. It was a privilege to know and love him.
Julia and I will keep you, Ashli and family in our thoughts and prayers.
Much love,
Ken and Julia Lowe
