

David Lee Christenbury

November 12, 1951 - April 6, 2019

David Lee Christenbury, age 67, died peacefully at home in Mooresville, on Saturday morning, April 6th, after complications from pancreatic cancer.

He and his wife, Beth, were together for almost 30 years. They lived each day to the fullest, knowing each day was a gift from God, especially after the death of daughter Catherine in 2005. They enjoyed times on the dock, listening and dancing to artists like Al Green, Bonnie Raitt, Chicago, Billy Joel, Elton John, the Isley Brothers, and SO many beach groups.

David was known to proudly say that he only worked for two companies: Belk's of Mooresville selling shoes and one bank, which just happened to change names during the course of his 43-year banking career: Piedmont Bank (a Davidson-owned bank), First Union, Wachovia, and Wells Fargo. During his consumer credit, retail banking, and wealth management career, David was also involved with civic organizations including the Jaycees, the Rotary Club of North Mecklenburg (Treasurer and Paul Harris Fellow), and the Lake Norman Chamber of Commerce (President). He loved participating in every community into which the bank brought him, enjoying all he met and making long-lasting relationships.

Although he was raised at Broad Street United Methodist Church in Mooresville (he was a third generation Mooresvillian), Beth convinced him that joining Davidson College Presbyterian Church with her, a member for almost 40 years, was where he belonged. He loved this church, greeting at the 11:00 AM service and helping in church projects.

Hobbies? Golf was at the forefront. Until his diagnosis, Thursdays were reserved for golf with his best buds, "sons", and other special friends. Playing golf at courses around the US was so special, especially when his best friends' "bucket list" included meeting Arnold Palmer. He also enjoyed boating on Lake Norman, yardwork, having fun with friends when and where ever, traveling, working Sudoku puzzles, playing Gin, watching a myriad of TV programs, and, truly, just enjoying life and whatever it offered.

David never met a stranger. He would always remember you fondly with his unforgettable blue eyes.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife Beth, his brother Eric and his children, son Jason and wife Amy; daughter Erica and husband JP and newborn daughter, Willow. Also, Beth's brother, Will, and wife Susan, and son Wes, wife Ashely, daughter Catie, and son Weston. Daughter Catherine, parents Bernard and Erleen Christenbury, and "second parents" (Beth's), Bill and Jane Steagall, preceded him in death.

The family would like to thank Dr. John Martinie and his colleagues with Levine Cancer Institute, all of the nurses and staff of "9B" at CMC-Main where David "lived" for so long, and the Hospice nurses who made his last days at home so peaceful. God bless you all.

A celebration of David's life will be held Friday, April 12, at 2:00 p.m. at Davidson College Presbyterian Church. A reception to receive family and friends will follow the service at the church's Congregation House.

In lieu of flowers, memorials if you wish, can be made to Davidson College Presbyterian Church or to Hospice & Palliative Care-Charlotte Region.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Christenbury family. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ I remember David well from Mooresville Senior High School, as we were in the same 1970 graduating class. He was one of the most positive, friendly, funny, caring classmates of all. I remember him well as our senior class's "Best Dressed." He and best friend Don Peiffer once came to my family's pool for a late-night swim, only to be greeted by a bat diving for water and buzzing our heads. David's screams woke up the entire Cedar Street neighborhood, and I've never laughed so hard in my entire life! David was always such fun!
My deepest condolences to all his family and friends, as I know he will be missed but certainly not forgotten! Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Beth - Mine and Erica's condolences to you and your family. I have many strong memories of David and my father's friendship that's lasted a generation. I've spent many a Sunday afternoon visiting David at his lake house. Played golf, gotten many haircuts down at the Head Shop in Charlotte. I remember David being around my father and us kids for as far back as I can remember. He will be greatly missed by his close friends and their children. David was a wonderful guy and a class act !!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll live beside of David, Eric and their parents when I was a child in Mooresville. I guess I was around five years old which would make David nine or Ten. We used to crash model cars in his parents hallway and throw snap pops in the garage. Even at that young age you knew good people. We soon moved away but I never forgot what good people they all were.

“ Dear Beth and Eric,

Cousin David will always have a special place in our heart. Cousins David, Tommy Mills, and Bobby Jones were the three boys a few years younger than me in our large Mills family clan. There are so many wonderful memories of growing up together, surrounded by the love of family. While I grieve with you his too-short life, I celebrate that he's now in that "cloud of witnesses" from our families and is reunited with his parents and so many others. With my love and Cathy's,

Bob Mills
