“ Debra Doo I miss you and love you very much

BFF 4 ever - January 19 at 07:59 AM

“ Debra, I remember the day in 1985 we two little girls come around talking to you and you listen to us we cried on your should you were there for our marriage and our kids being born. You always saying when we all did talk for about that you would say you not going a divorce from me well you left us and I was mad at you for that but I am happy for you because you are with the lord and watching over us. Thru our ups and down you were my sister and will always be my sister and I miss you. Till we see each other again my friend

“ My dear Sister your smile, laughter and kind loving spirit will be

Dearly missed. Will love you Always! We traveled many Wonderful roads together in our 46 yrs of sister hood.

You set such an exemplary example of what Gods Love Truly is !

You shared it continuously to those who were blessed to know

You.
