“ When I recently heard of Joe's passing, although I was sad to hear the news, I realized I was smiling as I was thinking of him because that is the effect he had on everyone who knew him.
I must have won a flock of his whirly birds over my years in our association and I was always so happy each time to get another one because I knew the fine character of the man who made them.

“ Joe was an integral part of the NC Tax Collectors Association and always had answers, with a friendly smile, for “new” Tax Collectors. His generosity of providing his “whirlybirds” as prizes were a special treat. My condolences to the family, he was a special man.

“ Joe was my brother-in-law and it was an honor to have known him. I will never forget our phone calls. We always greeted each other with "howdy howdy" and then we would talk about what went on in our lives since our last conversation. Our conversations were always filled with laughter and good feelings, Joe had a way of making our talk go that way. He was generous and kind and never met anyone that he didn't find a way to strike up a conversation with. I know he is with the Lord and no longer suffering. He will always be in my heart and memories

“ There goes one of kind a Southern Gentleman who could charm the socks off the Pope. He loved his family, his friends, and his Lord. I am so sorry to see him go, but the Good Lord has a sense of humor, too, and might just need a chuckle, so He called Cousin Joe Home. Rest in peace Joe, you needed a break. God Bless you all in the Ketchie Family, we love you.

“ I never met Joe, but I've heard you can tell a lot about a man's legacy by what they pass on to others. If an ounce of that is true with what I know of Kevin, then Joe has to be one incredible man. I'm glad to know that legacy will live on. Thinking of you all during this time and the days to come. Blessings.

“ What a joy it was to be involved in ministry at Triplet UMC with Joe Ketchie! He was so easy going and gentle with children. They were drawn to him for his sense of humor and his genuine love for them. I loved his "Rinderella". He was quite the entertainer and such an inspiration. I am so very sorry for your loss. Thank you for sharing your husband, dad, and grandfather with all of us. What a treasure! Well done, good and faithful servant.
