“ Logan used to always know how to make anyone smile or laugh. I knew Logan all my childhood but we all lost touch as we got older but I never forgot all the times we all spent together. It saddens me deeply to know he's truly gone forever. I remember spending time with his grandparents growing up and the fun we had growing up together. I'm sorry he's gone but know one day we will meet again. I love you Logan and the whole Regan family!

“ I remember when Josie, as a child, told me about this cute, funny boy on the bus. He was always joking and being a clown. Then she pointed me to this very tan, brown haired, active boy at the pool...to tell me that is Logan. She had a "squish" on him. Later, they would become boyfriend/girlfriend, engaged, and bring a precious son into our world, our grandson Ayden. Though they did not end up married, and we had our ups and downs, Logan had a special place in our hearts. We always had hopes for him. I'm so sorry his time on earth was too short. I'm sorry that Ayden doesn't have his father to build a relationship with into the future. And I grieve for my daughter Josie, my grandson Ayden, Nana Angie, Oma Yvonne and all who loved Logan. He will forever be in our memories. I pray that he is finally at peace. Prayers for the family. Sending my love, sympathy and hugs to you all.

“ It's been a very long time since I've seen Logan or his mother. Logan was the type of person that would talk to anyone, so easy to get along with. That's how we met he was walking by me and started talking to me and after that we became good friends. He always wanted to make you laugh. He was very protective, and liked to make sure you were okay. We both liked to write poetry back in the day. One of the best things I remember about him is that he loved his mother. She was an awesome mother.

“ I remember the first time I met Logan. He was this energetic dude that was so bright. I remember my mom worked at the quick-e right up the road from his house and I would go to work with her and walk to Logan's house and chill with him until my mom got off work. When I was going through so much Logan was always there. He pulled me from a dark place. He would call me every single day and we would talk and he would get me to laugh and tell me that I was a great mother to my girls and I'd get through everything I was going through. I miss our talks. I miss those phone calls. Logan I'm gonna miss you dude. Much love!!!! R.I.P. fly high with them Angel's. Until we meet again my friend.

“ It almost seems like yesterday that I met this foul mouth bad attitude having little kid in the hallway on the way to the office. He had on the coolest ICP shirt and a lifelong friendship started. I will always remember calming each other down when we knew that we were about to do something stupid. I love you Logan ...more than any title of family could describe.

“ I love you and I will miss you. I haven't experienced hurt like this in a long time. I'm sure there will be days where I just break down and cry but I'll just think of when we were little kids and I saw you at the lake and you had wide open arms for me and a huge smile splashing in the water in your mom's arms. That's the 1st time I meant you and I have NEVER forgotten that moment and now more than ever I wish that I would have grabbed you and played with you instead of letting someone force me away from you. I love you with all my heart.

“ I will forever miss our talks about life, our inside jokes, all the 2AM wake up calls just for you to tell me you're okay, and let's not forget every time your mother was upset with you, you'd want me to call and explain your side. I love you Logan. My heart aches, but I know you're now at peace. #PutItAtA25DegreeAngle
