"Do you want to have a cup of tea?" are words we've heard from our mom all our life and we wish we could have one more with her. A mother of 4 who picked up another one, to raise 5 kids the best she could while working difficult jobs. She instilled a love of life, music and so many other interests to her family. To know her well was to love her and if you knew her life story, she'd inspire you. She touched so many with her fun stories and perspectives that made us laugh and enjoy life. She really thought about what you would enjoy and appreciate. We all loved her!

“ Mrs Ewald had a loving and caring connection with all her children, unique and powerful to each child. As someone who knows the Ewald's for 40 years she wouldn't take the approach of guiding them to take care of a micro issue so much as the long term teaching lesson, trying to explain the value on how something seemingly minor can quickly escalate, possibly out of control. She tried to teach you to stop and think more about what your doing before you actually did it. I enjoyed her deliberate and humorous tone with me when starting a discussion sometimes by saying "you know Chris", while smiling softly, she actually didn't say anything yet but got my attention, I'll miss that. She was loved so much because she was great at being herself, people appreciate someone who can be both honest and caring

“ Martha was a very outgoing person who loved life. I enjoyed playing cards with her and she proudly showed me her many coloring books. I remember one in particular that was very detailed and asked, "how long did it take you to do this one"? She looked at me and said, "a day"! Sending condolences to the family she loved so much!
