“ How fleeting and fragile this life is. Patricia and I met at St Therese Catholic Church where she taught my daughter Faith Formation back in 2011. We quickly became close friends when we realized we were both tax professionals. Patricia was always welcoming and as I was new to the Mooresville area, she helped me in many areas professionally to find my way around and even invited me to Toastmasters which I later joined. She had a selfless energy, always eager to help anyone and everyone in need.

We both served as volunteers during a few tax seasons at the Christian Mission when she asked me to join her. After 2012, we attended many tax classes together where we'd have lunch and spend our breaks together. Those times together were so enjoyable. She would bring the hot chocolate or tea and I'd bring hot water to make our hot drinks and we'd share snacks to get through the days. Often we would just meet for lunch to catch up and chat.

Patricia was one of the very few people I know who did not complain about anything, and just got on with it. I often wondered where she got the energy to pursue everything she did. When I'd remind her to take things easy and slow down, she would always say "No big deal."

We were sounding boards for each other. When we had tax issues we needed guidance on, we could call each other to talk through things and arrive at a solution. She always made you feel like you were more important when you were with her. She was full of empathy and compassion which is a rare quality in this world.

She was an active member of St Therese Church and served on various Ministries. Its strange how the last time I saw her was at the very place I met her -- at St Therese where she was serving her community as a Lector. Unfortunately, we only got to speak briefly after not seeing each other for months because of the lock-down.

Patricia, you're missed. The world surely is a better place because you were in it. You brought joy to many people and you touched and helped so many along the way. God must have called you home because he needed your great work to be done elsewhere. Rest in peace my dear friend.

My deepest condolences to the Koviak and Lisun Family. May you find comfort and solace knowing your beloved Patricia is at Peace with the Lord.

“ So sad to hear about the loss of Patricia. My wife and I met Patricia as a part of the Mooresville Chamber Business Resource Group in 2016. She was always so kind and genuine. Patricia also did our taxes for the last three years and always inspirational to see. We are very sorry for your loss, but she's held in Jesus arms now. God bless.

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss.

I met Patricia at Toastmasters back in January 2017. She was an inspiration to us all. I feel I really got to know her through her speeches. She always jumped in wholeheartedly to volunteer to help as a senior officer in the Toastmasters at the Lake club. Her enthusiasm was contagious and I was always willing to help because she asked. In 2019, she asked for my help as President of Toastmasters at the Lake when the initial president couldn't finish the term. I didn't hesitate to help since she believed in Toastmasters and I could see the benefits she gained in leadership and confidence in public speaking.

When the club needed a new place to hold meetings she took the lead and got us a great meeting space for free at Victory Lanes. She also secured the space for other clubs at no cost. She was always relentlessly giving of herself.

It didn't stop at the local level. She also volunteered at other clubs. She and I were the first to log into the district contest a few weeks ago that she volunteered to be the target speaker for the evaluation contest. We chatted a bit before her speech. She was very calm and ready for the speech she practiced many times at our club. I had even helped evaluate her speech at our club to provide constructive feedback in preparation for her target speech at this district event. She gave an insightful speech allowing the evaluation contestants to differentiate themselves.

We will all miss her deeply and she will leave a hole like I'm sure she leaves with your family.

Please accept my condolences and let us know if there is anything we can do.

“ Even though I had some very brief interactions with her, those brief moments were enough to have a lasting impression about the nice behavior she showed to someone who is totally new to her. I never thought that the glowing light would end so soon in this earth to glow some where else. Let almighty give the strength and courage to overcome this great loss.

“ All of us here at Dazcon Properties are saddened by the sudden loss of such a great woman and Realtor. Patricia was always eager to help us with showings, working at the office on Saturdays and whatever else we might have needed. She was a hard worker and a go getter. She will certainly be missed and we extend our deepest condolences to her family. I will personally miss her calling and telling me "she has a quickie question"

“ When Patricia 1st joined Toastmasters International, we asked her why she came as we do everyone ... in her case she had upcoming lectern responsibilities at church and wanted to do the best she could a it. That was the beginning of my friendship with her and the completion of that first goal. She has had many since and worked hard at them. It has been an honor knowing her, and being apart of her successful endeavors with Toastmasters International and beyond. She even helped the club as an officer (multiple times) for Toastmasters at the lake and as an Area Director beyond. Her skills grew over the years I knew her, she earned many Toastmasters Awards with her hard work, and shared some inspiring John Maxwell moments at many meetings. If she did a meeting role incorrectly she would try it multiple times until she got it right and was satisfied. She even helped me spearhead a monthly Toastmasters Program I did at Hinds' Feet Farm (Program for people living with brain injuries.) Although she was nervous at first the program was a rewarding experience all around, and she kept coming back as do I. The world is a better place because she was here and will be forever remembered. Not just for Toastmasters, but for all the other things she did for her family, friends, club members and circle of colleagues. Rest in peace my friend.

“ We are deeply saddened and heart broken, Patricia was such an amazing person. There are no words to express our fellings. She was the sweetest, caring and non-judgemental person I know. She loved everyone especially her family and her boys. We'll miss you especially around tax time. May the Lord bless you and give you strength during this time. We can't even imagine what you all must be going through. We love you all and are praying for you.

“ The most important thing to Pat was her family. She loved holidays, traditions, birthdays and any occasion that would bring her family together. She and I were friends for over 45 years. We were also sisters in Christ so I celebrate her homecoming to heaven and look forward to the day when I will see her again. Love and God Bless to Paul, PT, Brandon and Maddie Aunt Renee

“ My sister will always be be a sister to me. She looked after me when we were kids and later on as we got older. Many times we would get together when i was working down at the shore in Wild Wood ,NJ. However I think it was our moms way of checking up on me so our mom would know I was safe. Then when I was working for Sam s Club and I and I would travel to different Clubs for resets and grand opening . We would try to meet up for a lunch or just to catch up with each other. She was and always be a mentor, a loving sister and she will always be in my heart, in my thoughts, and in may prayers. This is for you Pat I LOVE YA MEAN IT! YOUR LOVING BROTHER STAN
