“ Crystal, I was devastated by the news of Scott's passing . Scott was a huge influence in my life , he taught me so many things about outdoors, hunting, fishing, etc He took me to buy my first Bow, he was with me when I bought my first climber stand and he also took me on my first deer hunt and trout fishing..So many memories and stories with Scott..I can go on and on with funny stories..Scott was without a doubt the best outdoorsman I ever had the privilege to hunt with. He was a natural..I always said if I was in a survival situation I would want him with me. This has been a tragedy to me and can't begin to imagine how all of your feelings. My heart goes out to all of you. I don't have anyone's cell #s..I lost all my contacts.my cell# 7044950625..feel free to call me and please pass my # to Mike as well..I would love to hear from both of you, whenever the time is right for you..I have lost a dear friend in Scott's passing and I will never forget all of the great times..He was like a brother to me!! Mark Faircloth

“ My most sincere condolences on Scott's passing. Although I haven't seen the Pardue family in years, the entire family was a large part of my childhood. I'll never forget the fun times racing in Mr. Gantt's field, playing H.O.R.S.E in the backyard, playing army with the battlefield covering both of our yards, riding bikes on Meadowbrook and Baker Street then Tracy and I sticking things in the nostrils of Scott's deer heads and watching his face when he realized it. He wasn't amused but what was a little sister and her next door partner in havoc to do? Even the times when our parents were at work, Benny and I would be fighting in our front yard at the same time Tracy and Scott were fighting in their front yard. Scott getting his first deer with a bow, eating my first deer spaghetti provided by Scott and made by Doris, riding in the big oil truck with Gilbert and awesome trips to the beach. Then Scott married the cutest girl from high school Crystal and they had a little baby girl. Those are the days that I cherish most. May the memories of the good times be with you all always.
