

Stacie Moten Lustig

July 21, 1956 - June 8, 2019

Stacie Moten Lustig, 62, died peacefully at home on June 8, 2019 after being diagnosed with cancer in February of this year. During the last few months, she was cared for by an excellent team of professionals from Lake Norman Hospice. Stacie lived a light-filled life; in the words of Edith Wharton, she spread light as both a candle and a mirror, bettering the world by her own goodness and reflecting the goodness of others back to themselves in their encounters with her.

She was born in Philadelphia on July 21, 1956 and raised in Wayne, Pennsylvania. After college at Norwich University in Vermont, Stacie spent nearly two decades as a multi-award-winning global accounts manager for several computer companies: Digital Equipment Corporation in Massachusetts and New York, and in Houston, Compaq and then Microsoft. She was successful in her business dealings for the same reasons she flourished in her personal relationships: she was a wonderful listener, with a ready ear and a rare ability to nurture dialogue; she was able to draw others out and to respond concretely to their needs; and she brought a warmth, joy, and sense of humor to nearly every situation, both public and private, in ways that were infectious.

Upon moving to Davidson, Stacie spent several years as an agent with Lake Norman Realty and Ivester-Jackson Properties, where those same traits brought her success in a new business setting. More recently, she worked at The Pines retirement community. She was a devoted wife, sister, daughter, and friend, and a doting aunt to her nieces and nephews. And she was a woman with many interests: a fine cook and hostess, an avid gardener, a fascinated birdwatcher, and a voracious reader, especially of current fiction and of issues in politics and world affairs.

Stacie was a woman of character and of deep conviction, with a native sense of justice and fairness in matters both large and small. She was generous to a fault, often helping others in moments of crisis with timely financial and emotional support. She was an inveterate volunteer, attentive to the needs of those at the margins, especially in her decades of work in soup kitchens and delivering meals to shut-ins. The arc of her life was a testament to the dictum from the Saint Francis Prayer: "It is in giving that we receive." In her final months, she was overwhelmed by the deluge of notes and cards expressing affection and gratitude from the many friends and colleagues, near and far, whose lives she touched.

Stacie is survived by her devoted husband of thirty-five years, Bernard Andrew Lustig; her loving sisters Faith Suchodolski (Ted) of Philadelphia, Kristine Mahoney (Dan) of Darien, Connecticut, and Shawn Allegrezza (Craig) of Denver, Colorado, her twin; seventeen nieces and nephews and twelve great nieces and nephews. Stacie was preceded in death by her parents June and Jack Moten and her sister Kyle Disch (Jim).

The light and joy of Stacie's life will live on in those who were fortunate to know her. Although she is gone too soon, she has passed to a far better existence, which gives those of us who mourn her comfort.

A celebration of her life will be held at Davidson United Methodist Church on Saturday, June 29, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Mooresville Soup Kitchen or the Resident Support Fund at The Pines in Davidson.

“ Although I didn't know Stacie well we volunteered together at the Mooresville soup kitchen for about a year or so. She was definitely one of my favorite people there. She was such a kind person and really did shine her light on every person she served there. There are people you meet in life whose goodness is so evident you can't help but smile at the thought of them. Stacie was one of those people. I'm so sorry for her family and friend's loss but I'm so thankful I had the opportunity to know her.

“ If ever a quote described someone perfectly, the one shared here in certainly epitomizes Stacie. I was so fortunate to have been invited to become a part of Stacie's Book Club, when I was brand new to Davidson. I can so vividly recall meeting Stacie for the first time- her sparkling eyes, warm smile and lively spirit made such a strong and wonderful impression on me. Rarely are we blessed to meet someone who immediately feels like an old and comfortable friend, but that is exactly how Stacie made you feel. She shared her excitement that day as she was getting ready to attend the wedding of one of her beloved neices or nephews. Stacie's light truly shined so brightly and we will miss her wit, charm and loving spirit so very much. Sending prayers for comfort and peace to her loving family and dear friends at this time of great loss.

“ Stacie was a friend/sister to me beginning at Norwich University, Apartment-mate after college in Boston area and then part of my wedding party in 1982. Although we hadn't seen each other since then our hearts were always connected. Each year since living together i have made her FAMOUS BUCKEYES at Christmastime to share with loved ones. That tradition will live on even with my children. My love and prayers continue for Andy and Stacie's family. She has left this world a better place because she loved! i loved her so very much and plan to see her again in God's Eternal Kingdom. God bless you and keep you!

“ I am a better person having Stacie as my friend . Not only was she smart , compassionate , and a steadfast friend , Stacie could make me laugh until my face hurt with her quick humor . I loved the way her nose crinkled and her eyes sparkled when in the mist of a good belly laugh . There is no doubt I will miss here but I’m so thankful to have witnessed her grace and strength during her transition. Thank you my dear friend for making me a better person .
