“ Al taught me how to pick mushrooms that were edible when I was a kid. He had such a kind heart and I will miss him very much. I remember he was always on the go. Never seemed to slow down . That’s what kept him young for sure . RIP AL.

“ Sending my deepest sympathies to the family for the loss of their Dad, Grandpa, Great-Grandpa and friend. I feel blessed to have met and help care for Edo for the past several months. We had a lot of laughs together both sharing a sarcastic sense of humor, an affinity for singing opera or Martin/Sinatra songs, anything chocolate, both grew up in Torrington and shared the same Zodiac sign...Rest in Peace my friend, you will be missed but never forgotten.
