

Alan Clark Eakin

March 31, 1941 - September 3, 2021

Alan Clark Eakin, Christ Follower, Servant of the lord, Pastor and Architect took his last breath and started his journey to Heaven on September 3, 2021. Alan was born in Apollo Pennsylvania on March 31, 1941, To Parents James and Cora Eakin (Predeceased).

Alan Clark is survived by his wife of 51 years Laddy Eakin, His children Kimberly Eakin, Alan James Eakin, Elaine Eakin (Rosenquist) and Aaron Eakin. Brothers Alvin Eakin and David Eakin along with predeceased brother Gary Eakin. Alan also survived by 4 grandchildren Shaylin Rosenquist (Finch), Shaun Rosenquist, Christina Rosenquist and Michelle Schechter. Great grandchildren Ava Finch, Cohen Finch and Erikka Douglas.

Alan was a devoted Husband, Father and Friend. He was a god-fearing man who walked the walk of the lord and shared the word with who ever would listen. His passion for music gave him the ability to self-teach his amazing talent of playing the guitar as well as piano and many other instruments.

Alan was an amazing artist from designing in homes, building plans, home inspections to the simple artistry of drawing on a napkin to entertain his kids on a family night dinner. Alan was unique with his one green eye and one blue eye to being able to write and draw with both his right and left hand the most beautiful penmanship.

Alan traveled all over with his music in his early years and later years in missions and ministries like wings of faith.

His ability to forgive and see the positive in all things was a gift from his faith and knowing we are all brothers and sisters in Christ's eyes.

A Celebration of life and fellowship will be held on September 18, 2021, at 2pm, Grace Covenant Church, 17301 Statesville Rd, NC 28031.

Flowers and condolences may be offered at 135 Pleasant Grove Lane, Mooresville, NC 28115.
