“ Today I will have to say “I’ll see you later.” I met Al when I worked at Trakside. Al and Gene would come in the afternoon and eat a Boston Cream Pie and drink a Diet Coke. They would keep me on my toes with their jokes. These 2 kept my internet running. Al was a kind soul. He reminded me a lot of my father. It was because he was Italian and that’s just like a Greek man. They’re all about family and their kids. Al you will be so missed. He would stop by wab and see me. God sure does have another beautiful angel. Until we meet again my friend. Rest Easy Al. ❤️

“ Al lee, even in passing, remains an old and very close friend. I met Al in 1996.... He was leaving the limosine business he started in Mooresville, shortly after moving here from Connecticut where retired from SNET. Southern New England Telephone. He was just starting with Alltels contracting company . We became fast friends. He never once refuse to answer my questions or show how telecom issues should be done. I was able to carve out a 13 year career in telecom because of his friendship. He mentored so many other new men coming into the business. Affable, personable, witty, caring... I may never meet another friend like Albert Lee. God rest your gentle soul Albert. Until I draw my last breath I will remember you as a first class guy and a great friend.
