“ So very sorry for the loss of your loved one. May God touch each family member in this time of healing. There are no words to express how heavy your hearts are now and in days to come. I knew her she was a beautiful child, always laughing and happy when she came into my store. God bless each of you. In my prayers.

“ Simple words can not express my grief and I am thinking so much about all the family that we had a few years to get to know. Her beautiful smile and energy was appreciated and her laughter was in our home for several years. All families endure their share of trials, but I pray God showers all of you with the most love and comfort possible. No one can supply any answers as to this tragedy...hugs to all of you from us.

“ My heart is broken for your family. There are no words I can say to ease your pain or make this loss any easier to handle. God has His plans for each of us, we may not understand or agree with them at the time but in His time, there will be answers He will share that will heal your broken hearts. Until that time, my our Lord and Savior wrap your family tightly in His arms as Jesus holds Aleigh in His arms where she feels the love of Jesus Christ and knows His blessings for her for eternity. May your family find comfort and peace in knowing how much you are blessed and loved. Let us be here for you as you go through this most difficult time, you are not alone, your are all loved!
