

Allie Mae Dellinger

July 23, 1930 - January 22, 2019

Allie Mae Dellinger died Tuesday, January 22, 2019, at the age of eighty-eight. She follows her husband, Calvin who died four years before. Together, they rest in the hands of God.

Her influence on how we live, what we believe surprised her as would the depth and broadness of her friendships.

She lived without pretense. She bought a thing because it was needed and loved a good sale. She was a strong woman with soft edges.

We mourn and cry. We tell stories that make us laugh. We hold tightly to these memories of her life — of all that she gave to us.

Two sons and a daughter, eight grandchildren and seven great grandchildren owe her much. With love and thankfulness that is difficult to completely express we now say goodbye. We will not forget.

Services will be held on Monday, January 28 at 1:00 PM at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home. Visitation for family and friends will be from 11:00 – 1:00 PM.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home and Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Dellinger family. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ So very sorry to hear. I send my love to the family. It is always hard to loose ones you love. I have not seen Allie Mae in a long time. I think it was up at Bea's house. Just think, now all of the sisters and Jack and JD are together.

I can't attend the funeral but my thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love
