“ My sister was strong through her illness and gave her life to God. She had a positive attitude and fought hard. I'm so very thankful to God that her and I got so close. She helped take care of me when I was a baby. So proud of the woman she became. Prayers for my family during this difficult time. My dad who raised her was not her birth father. But he raised her as his own and she viewed him as her true dad. ❤️

“ Allison was a person you could never forget. She had a sincere heart and it was as big as the Grand Canyon. We met at Lake Norman Regional Medical Center in the A/R Dept. Through out the years we worked together at 2 more places..MBC and CABS. She was my encourager in my music ministry and I encouraged her when it came to life and making her beautiful Christmas cards. She made me some for Christmas last year which I will have to remember her by. I always told her she should go into business with that. Lol. My prayers continue to go out to Jon, Mr. Keith, Greg, Eric and Ann. She fought a good fight up until the end! God has called her home to rest and I'm so happy and glad that she was apart of my life. My husband always asked me "how is Besser". That was his nickname for her. I called her friend! She will truly be missed! The picture included is our trip to Augusta Ga at the James Brown museum. Love always, Catrina Reese

“ I met Allison at MCG. She rented a room to me after my divorce. We had alot of laughs. I saw her last in December 2020 when she was in town. We never think that when we see someone that might be the last time. Everytime we talked in the end she said she so tired. It is hard to let people go but she in peace, made whole in Heaven. Jon and the entire family is in my prayers. Love Barbara Starr

“ Allison, your laughter, your smile, your warmth is already missed. Jon, I am so sorry your time with your mother was cut short. Keep your head up & continue to make her so proud. She adores you even still.

My favorite memory with Allison is one of the last game nights we did; Jon was there too. We played cards against humanity & laughed so much that night. She made the night amazing.

I will so miss our talks & I will cherish the Christmas card you sent. I love you & miss you.
