“ My sweet cousin Amy, so sorry you are gone so early. The Lord has called you home. You were like my sister growing up. We always had each other. We started our families and grew apart. I regret we didn't see each other more after that. I will see you again. My prayers are for comfort and peace for all our families knowing you are home with our Lord.

“ My Beautiful Niece, So many memories of us growing up together. You were the life of the party and always made me laugh. You were one tough cookie, you had such a Beautiful Heart & spirit. Our Family was Blessed because you were a part of it. Fly high with the Angels niece. Forever in my Heart. Love you Amy
