“ There isn't a memory of my high school years that doesn't include the Ervin family! Every weekend Amy, Deena and Kathy's parents welcomed a whole brood of teenagers into their home. Amy was also so much fun. Her smile brightened the room, her "sarcasm" was hilarious but the banter between all the sisters was the most fun. Any time I saw her we would talk and laugh about the good times we had. You will be missed but you touched so many lives and we are all better because having your brightness shine in our world❤️🥹

“ When we were young girls, we all loved swimming. One year Amy had a white bathing suit. Something was tickling her back and she turned to see a black “string” on the water. Suddenly she realized a small black snake was on her back. Funny how she thought I would help her. Nope, I jumped out of the pool and watched as she bobbed in the water until the snake came off. Oh the joy of sisterhood. We love you Amy and will miss you dearly. 🥹

“ This memory is dedicated to you Amy....When we were kids we had big dinners at Mawmaw Bert's house. There would be a whole buffet of food to eat, but Amy would only eat ham and brown n serve rolls. All of us kids had to take our plates outside on the front porch and most of us had a little of everything on our plate, but, Amy would have about 6 rolls and a pile of ham, every single time. Those were the days cuz. Fly high beautiful. Love always, Teresa
