“ Hi Lynne, it is very sad news to learn of Andy's passing. He was such fun to be around. You may remember he made a cradle for my now thirty four year old son. Not only did Michael use it, but his son has now used it. I hope this finds you well and that you will be able to remember and focus on the the fond things. Blessings, Don

“ Carolyn:
Please accept my sincerest sympathy on the passing of your dear brother.
My oldest brother, Bill Young, who passed away last year use to fondly remember your two brothers, Edwin and Andrew, from their younger days in Charleston. I also fondly remember your nice mother and you from our early years at Saint Patrick's Church and School. You were always smiling and full of fun and personality!
God bless Andrew and God bless you and your Family.

Sincerely,
Allen Young
An old friend from the past

*lynn,
The passing of Your Husband ,My Cousin has left a whole in my Heart.
As a Child growing up in Hollywood ,thinking the early 60s Andy came to live with us to finish High School, and of course every weekend he had a big group of friends down to visit. He was larger than Life, some of the Best Times of my Childhood he was a major part of .The Stories
I shouldn't tell.
Andy was Loved and will be Missed, so Sorry for Your Loss.
Another light has gone out.
Love Always
