“ *I was your first girlfriend. You were the boy of my dreams in middle school. I still have the letters we used to write back and forth to each other. I called you Sparky because of that twinkle in your eye. It never went away.
Through the years I thought about you and how you were doing. We had a standing date you know. You owe me a date, and when we see each other again, I'll collect. All my love Sparky.*

“Carter and I worked together at Queen's Landing, rest assured in the time I was blessed to share with him, I learned what it was to know someone with a smile that could light up a room. His personality and charm was everlasting to all he encountered! Rest in peace my friend! Wishing serenity to all in this difficult time.
