“ I only heard today. So much of my childhood was spent with Cress growing up together in the neighborhood. His big brother coaching our football team. The cool parachute that covered his bedroom. Playing Beatles songs backwards to hear hidden messages. Swinging on kudzu vines in the gully. Firecracker fights. Fifth grade trip to Atlanta where I now live. Thanks dear friend for an amazing childhood. My heart is heavy for your brothers and sisters and family this season when family means so much.
