“ I send my sympathy to the family & friends. I dont know Angela's family but, I did know Angela & Alf Hughes. I remember when they first met. Alf told us he had pulled her out of the drive thru window at Burger King. I already knew Alf was crazy-fun like that & wondered about this young skinny Angela's sanity at that point... The next time we seen them was at a Hughes family wedding in Maryland & Angela looked so different than she did when they first met & seemed to be glowing with happiness... she had put on some weight but, it was all in the right places...& Alf was gleaming that day... We had some fun times with them. I had not seen Angela for probably 9-10 years..last time I saw them was at an outhouse race (of all things) in Independence Virginia & ofcourse there was a lot of laughs that day. Gosh, time really flys by... it was probably 17 years ago when Mike Hughes invited us to thier home in Mooresville NC. Alf fixed his famous grilled London Broil & we had a fun evening just joking around & laughed the night away... as usual when you were around Angela & Alf. I hated to hear that they had gone thier seperate ways after all the years they were together & I know it had been a long time since I had seen them but, like I said when I did see them we always had fun & a lot of laughs. Alf also passed away recently & I cant help but hope they are together now healed & happy.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Hughes. Although I did not know her personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. What a beautiful and exciting hope that is!
