“ I had the great pleasure of working with Angela for many years & over time we became friends. We would joke and play pranks on each other. I used to sneak up on her and tug on the back of her chair to surprise her. Ohhh would she get mad! But just as quickly she'd flash me a smile and give me a big laugh. I'll miss that laugh.

She talked about her daughter frequently and you could tell how proud of her she was.

She LOVED Christmas. She used to razz me that I didn't put up enough Christmas trees. One wasn't enough. I'd tell her I wasn't going to put up any, but she'd never let me get away with it. The more the merrier she'd tell me.

Angela will be missed. My prayers go out to her family.

“ I spoke to my cousin Angela about 2 -3 years ago. It's been a while. Growing up we were very close but as the years went on and our family moved away and her family moved away, we lose contact with our cousins but we never stop loving them. I am one of the oldest Celia. Marlene is older than me. McNeill and then next is me. Maureen McNeil now. Maureen Kennedy. I love her and her family. Her mom and dad were wonderful and we had great fun together. My father and mother passed away years ago. John and Catherine McNeill I'm sad but one day we'll all be together as family in heaven 🍷💖💖💖 and then the laughs will continue and the crazy Irish dancing and the crazy Irish ways. Love to all in heaven. Tell him it won't be long now when a lot of us will still start to join them in heaven. God willing
