Angela Newton Thompson

(June 14, 1961 - January 21, 2015)

Angela Faith Newton Thompson, 53, of Mooresville, listened and responded to God's call to restore her body and soul on January 21, 2015, after a long and valiant battle with breast cancer.

She is survived by her husband and best friend of 33 years, Thermond Thompson, of Mooresville. She served as the most amazing mother to her surviving children, Courtney Thompson and Laban Thompson of Charleston, SC and son-in-law, Jason Looney, of Charleston, SC. Angela is also survived by her siblings and their families: Dan Newton, Pamela Newton, Bonnie Young and Beth Newton, of Mooresville, as well survived by a sister-in-law and her family, Karen Rustmann, of San Angelo Texas. Angela had an unwavering faith, despite all circumstances, and took every opportunity to share God's love with others. Angela gave of her time, resources and love selflessly and without seeking recognition and had a passion for helping those who were less fortunate or struggling with difficult circumstances. She will be missed dearly by all who were blessed to know her.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, January 24 at First Presbyterian Church in Mooresville. The family will receive friends following the service in the church fellowship hall.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to be made to The Wounded Warrior Project, 4200 Morganton Road, Suite 300, Fayetteville, NC 28314 or Guardian Ad Litem, 2325 Concord Lake Rd, Concord, NC 28025.

“Thurmond, Courtney and Laban, While it is a beautiful day outside, life is much bleaker here at Mooresville Operations Center. Angie was such a bright spot here, one that I do not think anyone will ever be able to replace. I am certain that you feel the same way. But Angie placed her hope in Christ and her bright light shines on. I pray you will find God's comfort and light during these difficult times.

“Thurmond....There are special people that touch our lives and never leave us... your beautiful Angie was a constant inspiration to me. Who could not admire all the wonderful qualities your courageous wife had... the amazing person that she was. She had incredible strength, wit, charm, and intelligence. She had a gift for celebrating life, and had one of the kindest, most caring hearts I have ever known. I will always be grateful for having crossed paths with her and being given the opportunity to know her and call her friend. “A life that touches others goes on forever in memory and in the heart”. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.....

“ A mother is the truest friend we have, when trials heavy and sudden fall upon us; when adversity takes the place of prosperity; when friends desert us; when trouble thickens around us, still will she cling to us, and endeavor by her kind precepts and counsels to dissipate the clouds of darkness, and cause peace to return to our hearts.” ?Washington IrvingCourtney, she has raised such a person in you.
