

Angelina Accardi

December 17, 1926 - June 12, 2021

Angelina Mastrogiulio Accardi, "Angie", 94, of Mooresville, NC, peacefully went home to be with her Lord and Saviour, Saturday, June 12, 2021 at Novant Hospital under Hospice care surrounded by her loving family.

Angie was born in Brooklyn, NY in 1926, moved to Long Island and eventually settled in Fort Pierce, Florida.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, James Accardi, her sister Antoinette Amore and her brother Joey.

Survived by her "baby" sister Rosemaie Harris Forte, son James and his wife Meg Accardi, her daughter JoAnn and husband Alan Estergomy.

Grandchildren James Accardi, Garry and Jean Andreano, Anthony and Melissa Andreano, Kimberly Accardi and Angela and Steve Avvento.

Great grandchildren Garry III, Vincent, Christian, Violet, Anthony, Gianni, Dylan, Andrew and Reeve.

Great-great grandchildren Nora, Abel, Ariana and Benjamin.

Angie was outgoing by nature and a friend to everyone who met her. Most important to her was family, friends, entertaining and cooking more food than was possible to eat. Her door was always open and her table always ready to feed all that entered. Her laughter, smile and joy was contagious. She was witty, spunky and feisty even at 94 years old. She could out shop the best of the shop-a-holics. She was the life of every party and loved making others happy.

Angie was not only a friend to all that met her, she also became an instant celebrity on her son Jimmi's radio show in California (KVMR 89.5), sharing her recipes, funny stories and giving advice to all. Her personality and breath of fresh air traveled throughout the internet as phone calls would come flooding into the station to talk to her. Angie quickly became an overnight sensation and loved by all her fans.

She was a faithful, spiritual and prayerful woman. She prayed every day for those that were sick, lonely or depressed. She loved God and wanted everyone to know Jesus.

She was a saleslady at Mid Island Department store and a homemaker who enjoyed planning parties.

She was a member of Peninsula Baptist Church and joined a crotchet group at the Mooresville Civic Center. Angie took great pride in her appearance and always dressed in style.

A Celebration of life service will be held by the family on Wednesday, June 30, 2021, at 2 PM, with Rev. Dr. Robert Jackson officiating. Visitation to follow.

“ My Dearest Mom,
Although my heart still breaks 💔 and tears continue to flow 😭, I am trying to go on with my life because that is what you want me to do. You want me to laugh, go out, see friends and family, have date night with Alan, and enjoy the life God gave me. It is so hard without you. My world will never be the same. I lost my best friend. But I know you are in a better place, a beautiful paradise with God, daddy, and all your loved ones who have gone before you. I also know that I will see you again and be with you for eternity. But until that day arrives, I will miss you and love you forever and ever. Thank you for being the best mom, role model, listener, adviser, teacher and friend. Thank you for always being there for me my whole life and taking care of me like a nurse all those years I was sick as a child and then again as an adult after my surgeries. Thank you for always making me laugh, and for being my Netflix and movie partner. I didn't even mind all the crazy shopping til I dropped days! I will not be able to shop or watch old TCM movies for a while. I love you more than words can express. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
Rest In Peace my beautiful mom. Sing with the angels. 🎵🎶🎷

“ Dear Angie...me, my daughter Andrea and granddaughter Deanna...remember the first time we met at the Patio furniture area in Ollies. You were sitting at a table waiting for JoAnn (shopping of course) and we looked at each other and you had that sweet smile on your face. We sat down by you (we knew we were from NY) and talked and laughed like old friends for about an hour. It's no wonder they didn't throw us out of the store lol.

My tribute to you is, from that day on, I got to know you as a sincere ,lovable,affectionate,

Caring human being. Our memories of you will never be gone. My heart lights up when I see your sweet smile in your pics. You have a very loving Famiglia that will miss you terribly. God will be there for them 🙏❤️ Love you Angie...be with the Angels. 🙏❤️🌹

“ Aunt Angie & Uncle Jimmy bought me my 1st puppy dog stuffed animal the day I was born, whom I named Rogue, and 19 years later, I still have & cherish my favorite stuffed animal. And whenever Aunt Angie heard that I was coming down to visit, she would always have something special for me. My visits with Aunt Angie were always the very best. And I will never forget the memories we had & shared. I love & miss you so very much Aunt Angie. Love Always and Forever, Taylor Rose Amore.
