“ The first time I laid eyes on Mr. & Mrs. Martini at the clinic, it was love at first sight! Ms. Anne had a great sense of humor and such a warmth about her that I took to immediately. As the two of them entered the doors, I would always exclaim, "my Martini's!!!"I truly am sorry for the loss you all have endured. My heart truly was touched in such a short time by such a lovely couple. You all will be in my prayers. Love and light...

“ Nannie,Everyone of us has our own memories that we will cherish and then we have memories shared with the whole family. It is so hard for all of us to deal with your loss. Nannie you have instilled so much in us all. WE LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU EVERY DAYNannie,You always encouraged me in all things that I did. I always enjoyed our talks on the telephone when I always called right as you were making dinner, but that was our time to chit chat. Your a great listener and gave wonderful hug and kisses. Most of all you had your own style; and you rocked it! Everyday goes by and I see you in some way or another making your appearance.I love you forever and for always. I miss you so, but know you and I have so many special amazing times to hold close.

“ To Uncle Larry and my cousins, Our grief is overwhelming at this time. To lose two of the anchors of our family so close is hard to endure. Their lessons of love and family is what we cling to in our sorrow and may this be the source of our strength. I love you both Aunt Anne and Mom

“ To All Who Knew My Mom, There are not enough words to describe what I am feeling about the passing of my Mom. She was so many things to so many people. What I have continued to hear again and again was how much people loved her smile and her laughter!! Please pray for my Dad! We love you Mom and will miss you forever! Until we meet again!! Love, Jackie, Colleen and Pierce, Christopher and PatrickPS - Yes, Heaven does have cookies!!

“ your love will burn deeply forever in the whole family. I miss you with every passing day and I hope I can be half the mother, and wife you were. Thank you for teaching me how to love God and what family means. The memories I have of you with my son, Pierce is the best gift. Keep singing in the angel choir. You made heaven just a little brighter with your smile
