“ My mom (Helen) always told me that Aunt Louise was just like a sister to her. For a period of years and until recently, Louise and mom exchanged telephone calls almost every night. Sometimes I answered and got to share in the conversations which were special. Aunt Louise was such a sweet lady, concerned about what was going on in our lives. The last time I saw her, she was 98 years old. She made a special effort to be at the funeral for my dad. Thank you, Debbie, for making that possible. I will continue to pray for all of you.

“ Aunt Louise, Uncle JC, Mom, and Dad went to Florida together in the early fifties when Carolyn and I were three and five. We had cute little sundresses that were Mom's favorite. Louise told me that she and Mom would hand-wash them and then hold them out the car windows as they drove down the road so we could wear them again the next day. Must have been an interesting sight. Mom enjoyed spending time with Louise when the men went fishing. They were the best of friends, and I remember Louise as such a kind, sweet, loving person who was always fun to be around.
