“ I had not seen Andy in along time. The photo shows the same baby face kid that would come by the travel agency to visit me. His smile and laughter would always brighten my day. My heart goes out to you. May God wrap his arms around you and give you comfort.

“ *Family of Andy
Life is a Journey
On the journey through your sadness, there's a light that helps you find a tender reassurance and some peace of heart and mind. It's the light of loving memories, with their gentle, guiding glow to grace your days and soothe your paths wherever we may go.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Andy and I were close in high school and met back up the summer between college and grad school. I worked for him one summer at Subway way back then. He was the kindest and sweetest soul, love his family hard, and his animals always meant the world to him. He always talked about riding horses in Love Valley and going scuba diving, a newer adventure he added to his list at the time. May he Rest In Peace, and may his family find comfort in the wonderful memories he leaves with us. Sending love and hugs to everyone—Julie Williams
