“ I didn't know Ashley, but if she was anything like her mom and dad, she musical, athletes, intellectual. I am so sorry of her loss. I watch Loran Livingston every day on YouTube. He is a great preacher! I enjoy seeing what the Lord has taken you two through. I can only begin to understand the loss of a child. But God who is rich in mercy has and is sill working out his will in all of us.

Where is Chris? Hope he and family are blessed, too. Tell him he'll for me. My email is beaverwillie901@gmail.com. Text, gmail, call sometime. My musical days are past...the aren't many Jim Kovariks who can still play professionally at 80! My love and prayers for the Ervins and the Morrows.

“ Our whole family were deeply, deeply saddened by this tragic news. Mathew has known Ashley since 1st-grade at Cannon, and we have come to know her as a lovely young girl, full of intelligence, beauty & promise for the future. She embodies everything good and will be remembered as a wonderful person. Some things are just not right!!Family Lack (Mathew, Belinda, John, Nicole & Sam)

“ Our love and prayers are with you, Becky and Shawn. We will always remember sweet Ashley from junior K...through senior year at Cannon as a sweet, kind and beautiful girl. Most recently, we were blessed by her lovely rendition of Imagine at Senior Night...Her grace and effortless talent were just stunning. We are all here for anything you need and pray for you all to feel her presence and comfort in knowing you raised an angel. With love, Ginny, Pat and Mary Kate

“ Ashley was a beautiful soul. I loved her enthusiasm for all things outdoor and underwater and her dream of being a marine biologist. We worked together for three summers and I know she loved bringing joy to children. I cannot express in words how much I will miss working with her. I know she goes to a better place...but she has left a huge void in all of those who loved her.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Ervin, Ashley became one of my great friends this past summer and my heart has not stopped aching since I found out the news Tuesday afternoon. Ashley was one of the most loving and free-spirited people I've ever met and I miss her terribly. Her funny stories and smiling face always brightened my day and made work way more enjoyable. To me she was like the younger sister I never had and always wanted. My thoughts and prayers go out to the two of you and your family during this tragedy.

“ I am a Bible teacher with the congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. The loss you have recently experienced is no doubt great so I hope this condolence message can help to ease some of the pain. While there are no words that can suffice you can find comfort in knowing that Jehovah knows what each of us individually are going through and is there is help us get through difficult times. A comforting scripture that helps me is found at Isaiah 25:8. Please read it in your copy of the Bible but here is what it says, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces." In the near future he has also promised that we will be reunited with our loved ones again right here on earth but it will be paradise and no one will be sick or have to die. "No resident will say, I am sick." (Isaiah 33:24) You can find additional information that can help you to cope with life's anxieties by visiting the website www.jw.org. I hope this note provided some comfort. Take care.

“ Although I didn't know Ashley or any of her family and friends for that matter, I couldn't help but send my deepest sympathy to each and every one of you, especially her parents. Our daughters were to be suite mates at the Universtiy of Tampa in just a few short weeks. Being the mother of an only daughter, I cannot begin to imagine your pain and pray that somehow you will find peace in knowing she is in a better place with our All Mighty God. It saddens me that Mackenzie and Ashely's paths aren't able to cross for I can see she was a kind, gentle and loving girl. God Bless you Ervin family...

“ *Becky and Shawn, I am so incredibly saddened by the loss of sweet Ashley. I have known her for such a long time and so loved her talent and joy for music. Ashley was one of the sweetest young women, so full of joy for life. I know she is rocking it out in heaven and loving the music she is making and listening to... but what an incredible void she has left in the lives of our community. Know that we love you and are keeping you in constant prayer over the coming days, weeks, and months. She was so incredibly loved and touched so many lives. “ Words cannot express how sad I am over the loss of our dear Ashley. I was blessed to watch Ashley blossom from my sweet JrK student to a confident and beautiful young lady. It was a blessing to hold her hand and to look into those sparkly eyes. You did a wonderful job. May God give you strength, comfort and joy as you wait until the day you will see Ashley again. You will be in my prayers now and in the months ahead.

“ I send my DEEPEST condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Ervin. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 talks about the hope of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." May this beautiful promise bring hope for the future and peace of mind now!
