“ I met the family of Aubrey and Nancy Singleton Price in the mid 70's and felt immediately bonded to the family. Aubrey was always upbeat and fun to be around. Always good for a few laughs! I moved out of state, and have only seen them a couple of times or so in last 20 years. Over the time I have had many wonderful memories of time with the Prices, and so happy for all of these memories to bring me smiles and a happy heart Aubrey had a guaranteed nap after lunch at his in-laws, Roy and Blanche Singleton, sadly now deceased. Nancy, Chris and Stan, happy memories and thinking of you as you learn to adjust with life without your Aubrey/Dad. You all have so many wonderful times to keep his memory alive! Hugs and prayers for comfort in the coming time.
Love,
Deb

Dear Nancy, Chris, Stan and all family members. What a life Aubrey lived. When he was around the air was charged with energy. I remember his amazing personality, his beautiful smile and of course his moves on the dance floor. If you were fortunate to have met Aubrey you encountered a loving husband, father and friend. May the days ahead be filled with comforting memories of a man who impacted many with the love of Jesus Christ.
