She had a wonderful marriage and shared the adventures of the seas with Frank, sailing on their boat from Maine to the Bahamas and back.

She taught herself how to play the piano, wrote almost 1,000 poems, traveled the world and sang songs ranging from Church hymns to Christmas carols.

She was also a crossword-puzzle wiz and read no less than one book a day.

She was an entertainer and loved to be around those she loved. The family extends their profound thanks and appreciation for all the support and compassion.
