“*Jermaine, I am so, so sorry to hear about Aushlan. I
Your stories about her made her sound like such a beautiful, special person. There is an old Irish blessing for the departed that I hope will comfort you and Aushlan’s family and friends:
Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes, we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you.
For an interval.
Somewhere. Very near.
Just around the corner.
All is well.
Nothing is past; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before. Only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.*

*Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, Jermaine.

“ I went to school with Aushlan at West Iredell. Throughout the classes we had together, though often quiet, she always seemed to have a smile on her face, regardless of the circumstances. It was a great pleasure know her and to call her my friend. I will be praying for you all during this time, may God grant you peace, comfort, and strength in the days to come.

“ Laytoya and family. I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart is broken. Aushlan meant so much to my family. I know every time kyla was home she would go out with Aushlan. They have been friends since middle school. Kyla is very upset and wanted you to know that she is thinking of you and we are thinking of you too. We love Aushlan and she was such a good friend to Kyla. Aushlan was such a beautiful person inside and out. We are so blessed to know her. We are so very sorry.

I never met Aushland in person. I came to know her from conversations about her loving and kind spirit from my friend, Isadora. It so touched my heart hearing how strong and resolved she remained through her courageous battle. It was obvious that she was special and unique in so many ways. May her light always shine in your hearts. My heart felt condolences to her parents, grandparents and family. Diane Arnold
