“ Barbara was a sweet soul that loved her family. I will cherish the many memories made over time. The times we laughed so much, she was about to fall out of her wheel chair. The phone calls, some to say, come over for supper, I made such & such, don't you want to take some home with you? The home & Citadel visits, (where she deemed me her "might as well be daughter"). That title stuck, but I don't think it offended her daughters! She also loved to show off her coloring pages & Bingo winnings. Well, Mrs. Barbara, you're - might as well be daughter will miss you a lot!!
