“ Cynthia McLaurin lit a candle in memory of Barbara Ann Edwards

“ Mrs. Edwards was the secretary at Mount Mourne Elementary School. Because my mom worked in Charlotte, she couldn't get home in time to take me to the Thanksgiving Parade. Mrs. Edwards took me to that parade several times and sat in her car with me watching it go by as if I were one of her own kids. I can still remember the music on the radio in her car and her voice. What a sweet woman that I will never forget. No doubt she heard "Well done, good and faithful servant." when she entered Heaven.

“ I met Barbara at South Iredell High school. She was the secretary and kept up with an absence. You could not pass anything of Barbara. I liked her spunk. In later years she was at Mt. Mourne in charge in the office, I loved her joy and happiness, She shared her joy with all of us. She was my friend and she will be missed terribly
