February 22, 1930 - July 8, 2025

Barbara Helen Freund, born in Springfield, Illinois, on February 22, 1930, passed away peacefully July 8, 2025. She was the daughter of Genevieve and William Heineke and the beloved sister of Carolyn Easom (Harry Easom).

Barbara was married to Richard Alan Freund for 73 years, a partnership rooted in deep love and lasting friendship. Together, they raised four children: Laura Freund, Jeffrey Freund, Amy Abernathy (Jack Abernathy), and Johanna Newman (Kevin Reeves). She was a proud grandmother to Christopher Phillips (Carson Phillips), Stephanie Phillips, Brian (Ben) Newman, Justin Newman, and Mary Newman, and a delighted great-grandmother to Arthur Phillips. She was preceded in death by her son, Jeffrey Freund.

A passionate reader, Barbara turned her love of books into a lifelong career. She owned and operated Main Street Books in Davidson for over 30 years. She had a special gift for recommending just the right book to each person who walked through the door.

Barbara was a long-time member of the Lake Norman Yacht Club, joining in 1967. She cherished the welcoming atmosphere and the many friendships she formed there over the decades.

She enjoyed playing tennis and bridge and loved to gamble-more for the fun

“ Mrs. Freund was a wonderful mom and was always welcoming to her son/daughter's rowdy friends. I will always harbor a special place in my memories for the whole family.
