

Beatrice Dixon

April 3, 1947 - March 18, 2025

Beatrice Smith Dixon, 77 of Cleveland, NC peacefully entered eternal rest on Tuesday, March 18, 2025.

Beatrice, known as "Bea" was born April 3, 1947, in Pike County, (Phelps) KY. to the late Clarence and Myrtle Coleman Smith.

Beatrice spent the majority of her time both professionally and personally in retail, which combined her love of shopping and serving the needs of others.

In addition to her parents, Beatrice was preceded in death by sisters, Emma Jean and Racine; brothers, Vernon, Frank Stirl, Marvin and Willard; brother-in-law, Jack Hatfield; and sisters-in-law, Francis, Pauline and Pat.

To honor Beatrice's memory and celebrate her life, she leaves her beloved husband of 41 years David; daughter, Teresa; granddaughter, Brandie (Matthew) and great-grandson, Camden; sisters, Irene (Buddy) and Annetta; brothers, Clarence (Ella); Bill (Debbie) and Virgil; sister-in-law, Delphia; stepsons, David A. and Danny; as well as beloved nieces, nephews and countless friends and neighbors.

Beatrice was a member of the Freedom Christian Center in Mooresville, NC where, as a devoted woman of God, she was a shining example of faith, kindness and steadfast love. Her life reflected her deep faith, which she shared with others in her daily life and warm caring spirit. Beatrice has left a lasting legacy of service and compassion, that will be greatly missed by all.

A celebration of her life will be held in Phelps, KY at a later date.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville is proudly serving the Dixon family.

“ Ms Bea was a joy to be around. Even during the roughest part of her illness she was concerned about others. She absolutely loved the Lord Jesus Christ and she adored her husband and family her smile will be missed but hopefully her kind words will always remain in our hearts she was a great example of God's love
