“ When I started coming to Southside church I was in Betty's class. She welcomed me and we became friends that day. Betty was a Christian lady and a friend many people.
To the family I pray for comfort during these difficult days.
Love you my friend Betty R.I.P

“ I worked with Betty at General Microcircuits, where she worked with Maxine Mullis in the shipping Dept. What a duo they were, and kept everybody in line. I loved both of them and will never forget them.
Betty was a strong lady and loved her Church.
