How I loved to see your mother come to Food Lion and do her weekly shopping. She always had the sweetest smile and I would always give her a hug. Missed her when she could no longer come but always ask about her when her neighbor came in. We have lost a very special lady and she will be missed. Prayers for you and your extended families.

“ To Suzanne, Tommy, Dickie, and all the family: I know you boys have adult names now, but I want to you to know that you're close to my heart as you're missing your mom and my dear Aunt Betty. All of those Mills boys and girls and spouses were special to me, but Betty and Tate were extra special. I'm remembering especially those holidays our families celebrated together and hundreds of days on the lake. Sweet, fun, Aunt Betty and feisty, sharp-as-a-tack Uncle Tate were like a second set of parents to me. I'm grateful that in heaven a huge reunion of Betty and Tate with all those Mills and Burgess family members is going on right now. Cathy and I send our love. The picture with our granddaughter Eve (daughter of Mary Mills Katz and Justin Katz) was taken at our last family reunion.
