“ It's not often a truly good person comes into your life. That was Betty. I met her at DSS we started together in 1980 and became such good friends. Circumstances and a career change for me took me in a different direction but I have always treasured our friendship and the time spent with such a sweet, compassionate and genuine person. Goodbye, my friend. I'll see you again on the other side.

“ I keep thinking about when I babysat Ellen and Cammie on Tuesday nights while you were finishing up your degree, you driving us to concerts, the beach trip, your sound advice, quick wit, kindness and positive outlook on life. You definitely were like a “Cool Aunt” to me. I’ll always cherish the many memories and be at peace knowing that heaven is now lit up by your awesome smile. Janice Alexander

“ So sorry for you loss! I didn’t know Betty for long but she always had a smile on her face and welcomed me like one of her own! She was truly a blessing to this world and to anyone who got the pleasure of meeting her! I know she will continue to guide her loved ones and help from above in anyway she can. Prayers to all! ❤️

“ What can I say...Betty was one of the sweetest, kindest...and such a fun person to know. We shared many fun days many years ago working at Social Services together. Even though we haven't kept up as much as we drifted from DSS, her memories will remain a part of me. Take care lady and may heaven enjoy you as those on earth have.

Betty always brought a smile to my face, and actually still does when I think of her. I recall Troy telling me that Betty is terrible with directions and apt to get lost. Today, I am not concerned that she turned the wrong way going home. Her eyes have always been focused on Christ, and He was there to take her hand and walk her home.

When loved ones die and leave us here, we are sad and even disconcerted. It is bittersweet for us. A bitter taste because we miss and will miss Betty. But, oh the sweetness of knowing Betty is with her LORD and is seeing Troy again.

God is merciful and full of grace. Keep your eyes focused on Him just as Betty did and is doing.

Blessings to the whole family.

It has been years since I last saw you, but the laughs we shared and the encouragement you gave me, will be with me forever. Miss you, but know your smile, love, and laughter is being shared with others today.
