“ Dear Gordy, Debbie, Barb, John and family:

"Hi Boola, where's Bordon?" Asked by son Pete as I dropped him off at Beulah and Gordon's just prior the birth of his sister, Mary Catharine ("Mary Kate"). As Pete and Cath had only two living grandparents, Beulah and Gordy quickly became their surrogate grandparents. Our entire family wishes to express our deepest sympathy on the occasion of Beulah's passing. Both Gordy and Beulah were dear, dear friends and we miss them a lot. Have to admit we lost track of Beulah and Gordy after their move to NC. We just received the invitation to the memorial service for Beulah on June 5th and expect to attend in person. Again, our love to all and know that Beulah is always in our prayers and thoughts. "Those who trust in God, never see each other for the last time."

“ Dear Englund Family,

I am so sorry to hear about Mrs. Englund's passing. While attending First Congregational church, she and Mr. Englund were always so kind to me. I loved her beautiful smile and appreciated her love of family!
