“ Barb, my sister Maureen just told me about your sister Bonnie. I am very sorry for your loss. When I think of Bonnie, I see the most beautiful smile. Other than when we were annoying her (doing the little sister and her friends thing), she always seemed to have that smile on her face. I can picture her on that hockey field. She clearly loved the competition and always rose to the occasion. On a night that we were having a sleepover at your house, she made the most amazing green bean/bacon/tomatoes dish. I was never quite able to duplicate it, but I will never stop trying. Thinking of you.

“ Uncle Bill and Aunt Babe had two daughters, almost a thousand miles away from us in Illinois, but every summer, when my two brothers and I were kids, we drove east with our folks to see their families, and we had the best of times with the Deckmans! We all dearly loved our "Mom-Mom," Etta Deckman, Bonnie's paternal grandmother, my maternal grandmother, of Westmont. The Deckmans had a shore place where we swam and ate great meals of Jersey sweet corn and tomatoes. The best memories... Time passed; we all were absorbed in our own families and careers, and then...retirement. Bonnie and I grew closer then, over the phone, and once I visited her in Florida. We kept up our relationship thru cards, calls, and holiday gifts. She knitted a beautiful afghan for me. I treasure it for that beauty and the great effort she took in making it. Bonnie was a loving and thoughtful person. I will miss our chats, and I am very sad that she did not have more time to enjoy her dream home in North Carolina.

“ It was difficult to make a choice when asked my relationship to Bonnie. Our fathers were best friends, so we grew up more as "cousins" than friends. The Deckmans and the Hardens shared holidays, vacations and so many wonderful memories they're almost too much to recall. Distance kept me from seeing Bonnie for many years, but we stayed in touch the best we could, mostly e-mails and the occasional phone call, but I had no idea that she had been ill and I'm sorry that I could not have been there for her during her battle. My mother was godmother to Bonnie and Bonnie never failed to remember her with a card and a note on every holiday . . . never missed a single one. She was an important part of my life for as long as I can remember, and I will miss her. I know that she's in a better place, with an amazing seat at every game, cheering (or booing) her beloved Philly sports teams. My prayers are with all of her family.
