“ I was a teenager when Brad, my first nephew, came into our lives. From the beginning he was unique and precocious and so very smart and had boundless energy. He always had a "project" going and created countless collections. My mom, his Grandmommy, called him Braddie Boy and said he had "laughing eyes", which he did. And he always called me Auntie Joycie and I loved him dearly. My comfort in the midst of my grief and our loss, dear Brad, is that you are now with Jesus with a new and healed body and that your beloved grandparents and other loved ones are with you.

“ OH Brad - we know that you are with our Lord and we rejoice that there is
No more night, no more pain
No more tears, never crying again
And praises to the great, "I am"
We will live in the light of the risen Lamb
You ministered to so many in your lifetime - now rest in the arms of our Lord. Rest and rejoice at being the new you.
Love and prayers to your Mom and Dad, Greg and Kim, Marcy and all the kids.
We will cherish our memories of you.....Steve and Susan Miller and family

“ Brad was always super sharp-minded and quick witted; I always enjoyed chatting with Brad when he was home for a visit, and seeing some of the creative gadgets he created or worked on at some point in the past in his parent's home, or hearing stories of the development and construction of them. Prayers for his family, mom and dad, brother, and all of his family.

“ I remember running around our grandparents home after mom bee (gosh is that how you spell it?) died - Greg, Brad, me and my sister Cheryl. We had so much fun and never realized how sad our mothers were.

Brad, today i know you are in a much better place and I will see you there when God chooses my life on earth to end. I love you cousin!

One of my fond memories of Brad is when my daughter's kitten was frightened and ran up a very tall pine tree. After 3 days she still would not come down. Who should come to my house to help....Brad Shue! He fearlessly scaled that tree and rescued the kitten. Such a big heart!
