“ I just found out about Brad's passing, and though I only knew Brad and Glenna a short while at Oaklawn Baptist Church, I knew he and his mom were the real deal. I rejoice that he is in Heaven and celebrating with his loved ones. My deepest sympathies to Glenna and the rest of the family who remain here below. God bless you all.

“ *Grew up next door to the Haupt's in Peapack NJ. Great family. We had good times together. Brad left a beautiful memory when my Dad passed away in 2012. I have been out of Jersey for along time but will definetly miss those days. Brad is a great person and will be missed. My condolences and prayers to Glenna and to the entire family.
