“ It's been several months now and I wanted to let you know we have not forgotten Brian. When I come in on Sunday morning I still think he might just come through the door and sit down in the pew near me. I miss hearing his baritone voice during the hymns! Peace to you Karyn!

“ Brian was a friend through competitive ballroom dancing - and I will remember him as a gentleman, smart, funny, and for our shared love of theater and the arts as well as dancing. I will also remember great conversations and laughter shared with Brian, and the kind look that he always radiated. I'm so thankful for his family and for Karyn, that he clearly had love and happiness in his last days and years of life. It's clear he lived a rich and rewarding life, albeit too short. Peace and love, and see you on the other side.
