“ What a shocking loss! Brian was a good man whom I never heard anyone speak an ill word of. He loved his family, his wife and his community and served them well. I knew him to be more reserved but when he did say something- you knew he meant it! Funny, down to earth and considerate of others. Such a fine pair he made with Ginger! Prayers for her broken heart. A shame to see such a warm, loving woman so full of life lose her life partner. Wishing you all strength and peace in your grief. The packed seats at his funeral attest to his character and goodness. What a loving family man. So sorry for his abrupt departure from this world. God be with yall.

“ Oh, Ginger, Mike, and Faye, and the rest of the Young family, Janielle and I just don't know what to say about the death of Brian! We are completely shocked as we know you all are too. Why it wasn't long ago that Mike, Brian, and their crew redid the downstairs bathroom in our home, mainly putting in a walk-in shower. Why, they also redid (almost) the old Fries home where Lisa and her family live now. They always did just a marvelous job; they kept at the job until it was right. Know that our hearts and prayers go to each member of the Young family. We were not able to attend the services because we do not go into crowds anymore: my health problems and Janielle's age. Ginger, I enjoyed you as a student and friend, and, of course, we enjoyed Brian every time he came into our home or the Fries home place. He always had a marvelous attitude, smile, and "let's get busy." As the French say, "Que Dieu vous bénisse!" (God bless you!" Love, Roy and Janielle

“ Our deepest condolences to the Young family whom we have known for many years. Everything that Brian and his Dad built was amazing, including their wonderful family. Brian was always smiling, always pleasant, and was a true blessing to anyone and everyone lucky enough to know him. A true family man, loving husband, father, grandfather and friend. Of all the things that he built, his family was always his proudest accomplishment. And as a man of faith, he will continue his journey with our Lord and Savior. Until we meet again..... We love you all so very much. Again our deepest condolences.
