

Broadus Allan Sims

May 18, 1930 - March 24, 2020

Broadus Allan Sims, 89, of Mooresville, passed away on Tuesday, March 24, 2020 at Lake Norman Regional Medical Center.

He was born on May 18, 1930 in Polk County, NC, to the late Harvey and Myrtle Barnett Sims. Mr. Sims was a US Army Veteran serving during the Korean War. He worked many years as a truck driver for Yellow Freight while living in Glen Allen, Virginia and Mooresville, NC. In retirement he tended a large vegetable garden providing food for friends and neighbors, was an avid reader, and helped deliver Meals on Wheels to those in need in his community. He was a graduate of Gramling School of Spartanburg County excelling in academics especially math as well as in his role on the school basketball team. He celebrated yearly reunions with his graduating class for the past 70 years.

He is survived by his wife, Evelyn Rainey Sims; and daughter, Karen Sims Castoral and her husband, Peter and their daughters Catherine Allan, Ellie Grace, and Elizabeth Rainey Castoral. He was the youngest of five brothers who pre-deceased him; John Earl Sims, Harvey Marion Sims, Roy Elmer Sims, and William Russell Sims. Extended family includes Gayle Sims of Campobello, SC, and family, John and Pam Sims Rutledge of Spartanburg, SC, Phillip and Trena Caldwell of Kings Mountain, NC and family.

Mr. Sims was a long time member of First Baptist Church of Mooresville.

We look forward to being able to announce a date in the future to celebrate his loving life we were so grateful to share.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Sims family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.
