“ My friend Bruce The Michigan Goose Hilton, to his many Big Rapids Friends and Brothers...The Goose. Bruce was a founding Member and ambassador of the ZFK M/C motorcycle club. More affectionally know as The Zits.

He was a happy guy and a mentor to me and a guiding light to a motely crew of many Ne'er-do-well's clad in leather and dirty torn jeans and ill tempers. He was always smiling and clean and pressed and a good example to be..but seldom..followed. I never received bad advice or a discouraging remark from him. He even financed my first real motorcycle by co signing at the bank.

He was a guy who believed that every woman of every shape and size and personality would benefit from knowing him. To that end he was always "on the make". Bruce's favorite line of introduction; "Hey good lookin', what's cookin'" actually worked. His one woman in 50 try's strategy worked and his black book was full.

I miss the guy a lot, often to the point of tears and got to see him after a many years hiatus; 3 weeks before his death.

Good bye Goose. I love you man. You were a friend and brother when few others would take a chance on me. Gary Red Skaggs
