

Bruce Anne Steadman

December 31, 1967 - January 28, 2023

Bruce Anne Steadman passed away on 1/28/2023. She was born in Statesville, NC on December 31, 1967. She was a graduate of Starmount High School and Surry Community College. She worked as an LPN for the Yadkin County Health Department. She is pre-deceased by her paternal grandparents, Paul and Virginia Steadman, her maternal grandfather, Frank D Alexander, and her father, Paul C. Steadman. She is survived by her grandmother, Betty Alexander, her mother, Cynthia Randleman, her sisters, Julia (Mark) Hallum, and Cammie (René) Burgess, and nephews Jon (Viviana) Burgess and their children, Levi, Josiah, Noah, and Felicity, Robert Burgess, and Andrew (Katelyn) Burgess and their daughters, Ava and Elise as well as many cousins, aunts, and friends.

Bruce Anne could make anyone laugh and enjoyed story telling. She loved hummingbirds. She was artistic and enjoyed making crafts and writing. She was a friend to many and kept in contact with friends from every place she worked and lived. Bruce Anne (or Brucie) will be missed for her good humor and her willingness to go the extra mile for those in need.

Thank you to the staff at the Glenn Kiser Hospice House in Salisbury. We appreciate the support and kindness of a great many friends and family.

A memorial service will be held at Prospect Presbyterian Church in Mooreville, NC at 2:00 PM on Saturday, February 4, 2023.

“ Bruce Anne was a dear friend and we loved her very much. We will miss her a lot. We really hate she is gone. But we did not want her to suffer. We just can't hardly believe that she is gone. But she will always be loved in Mississippi. So thankful for having a friend like Bruce Anne. We love you girl now and always. Our hearts are hurting and we will never forget you. You will always be part of our family. Richard and Sandra.
