

Bryan Kendal Airey

December 6, 1973 - August 17, 2018

Bryan Kendal Airey

DOB December 6, 1973

After of over a year of fighting his cancer, Bryan passed away on August 17, 2018.

Bryan loved music and was an accomplished musician and athlete. He enjoyed fishing, cooking at home, spending time with friends, and being at the beach and on the water. He was a very loving uncle to his nieces and loved them more than life itself. He was a very loving son and brother to his family and would do anything for us.

Bryan was a graduate of South Iredell High School, and a number of culinary schools. After some years as an accomplished chef, went back to school and got his Bachelor's Degree in computers in 2011 from ITT Technical Institute. Bryan worked as a mobile support manager for Family Dollar and at The Global Operations Security group at VF Corp supporting, managing and triaging Mobile Device Management issues, Airwatch Security, incident response and customer service.

Bryan is survived by his parents, mother, Diane Airey of Salisbury NC, father, Lawrence Airey (step-mother Dixie) of Oak Island, NC; brother, Joshua Airey (Paige); his nieces Madison and Charlotte of Mooresville NC; and brother, Jarred Airey (Lori) of Stanley, NC.

A memorial will be held at 7:00 PM on Wednesday, August 22 at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home Chapel, 494 East Plaza Drive, Mooresville, NC 28115. The family will receive friends following the service at the funeral home.

The family wants to thank all those at Levine Cancer Center, Carolina Neurosurgery & Spine Associates, Carolina's Medical Center and the Sherrill's Ford Hospice House who have helped Bryan fight. They are such wonderful and caring people.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Catawba Regional Hospice, 3975 Robinson Road, Newton, NC 28658 (<https://www.catawbaregionalhospice.org/give>).

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, will be in charge of Bryan's final arrangements. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.
